THANK YOU NOTES

SOLHEID

The family of Eugene Solheid would like to express their appreciation for all the sympathy cards, flowers, phone calls, and personal visits during the last few months leading up to dad's passing on Feb. 23.

Thank you to Father Pete and Deacon Dose for the funeral service, Sue McElmury and Sara Freid for the music, St. Mary's CCW for the luncheon, Schleicher Funeral Home for handling the arrangements, the American Legion and VFW for the military graveside rites, the staff at St. Marys Hospital in Rochester for their care immediately following dad's stroke, Augustana Care Center in Hastings and Lake City Care Center for their fine care during the last few months, Linda Dose, who cared for dad the last few years and to dad's friend Gary Freiburg for getting him out of the house every now and then.

Thank you to everyone who came to dad's visitation and funeral to share stories and memories with us and to anyone we may have forgotten to mention. It was greatly appreciated.

St. Mary's CCW supports Five for Food

The Council of Catholic Women of St. Mary's of the Lake in Lake City has donated $500 to the Lake City Food Shelf in honor of 100 of their members. Linda Harvey presented the check to Bruce Carlstrom of the Greater Lake City Community Foundation. The Community Foundation is one of seven sponsors who each donated $1,000 and challenged the community to come forward with 1,400 donations of $5 or more. Carlstrom reported that remaining pledges will put the donations over the 1,400 mark. The donations will exceed $25,000, which enable the Lake City Food Shelf to purchase over $100,000 worth of food. Other sponsors are Ardent Mills, Mayo Clinic Health System Lake City, Lake City Masons, Lake City Federal Bank Foundation, J. A. Wedum Foundation, and an anonymous donor.
