LAND STEWARDSHIP PROJECT

Democratic-Farmer-Labor (DFL) Party Contactless Caucuses

Wabasha County Democrats will conduct "contactless caucuses" on February 1, 2022. We want everyone to be able to participate safely during this surge in COVID spread in our communities. There are multiple ways for Democrats to participate in the Precinct Caucuses.

Participate in the caucus by submitting the following in person, by email or by US Mail:

• Precinct Caucus Non-Attendee Form. Each precinct caucus 'attendee' must submit a 2022 Non-Attendee Form with their signature. On the form, they can show their desire to hold Precinct Officer or Convention Delegate position. If there are more people interested in being a Convention Delegate than delegate slots, a random selection will be held during a public Zoom call the following week, date and time to be announced by email.

• Resolutions. Attendees can also submit resolutions to be considered for inclusion in the State DFL Party Platform. All resolutions must be on, or attached to, an official Minnesota DFL Resolution Form. All resolutions will be forwarded to the Wabasha County DFL convention (similar ones may be combined).

Wabasha County residents can mail completed Non-Attendee and Resolution forms to Wabasha DFL, P.O. Box 46, Wabasha, MN 55981, or email to: chair@wabashacountydfll.org; or drop off at one of the sites below on Caucus night. A scan or photograph will be accepted, but all must be accompanied by a signed Non-Attendee Form from a Democratic resident of Wabasha County. Documents must be received in-person or mailed by 9:00 pm on Feb 1st to be considered.

Both the Non-Attendee forms and proposed resolutions forms are available at <https://www.dfl.org/caucus/>

In-person drop-off is Tuesday, February 1 from 6:30-9:00 p.m.
at any of these Wabasha County locations:
Lake City High School, Door 2 or 11
300 S. Garden St., Lake City MN 55041
PEM School, 7/8, Main Door
70 1st St. SE, Elgin MN 55932
