Florence Township Residents
The annual Florence Township Meeting and elections are coming up on March 11. Voting is from 4-8 p.m. at the Town Hall with the annual meeting starting at 8 pm.
With the retirement of Township Supervisor, Jim McIlrath, there is a vacancy on the Board. Nathan Oppedahl, a resident of Old Frontenac, has filed for the position.

Nathan grew up in Iowa, and among many interests, spent summers working on his cousins' farms, eventually helping manage his family's farm land. After college he moved to the Twin Cities to start his career in business management, marketing and finance. He also served on the boards of several non-profit organizations. He currently is on the Frontenac Cemetery Board and the Florence Township Planning Commission. He is active in the Frontenac State Park Association and recently joined the Frontenac Sportsman's Club. He has a keen interest in the matters that come before the Township Board and a desire to help improve the quality of life for all Florence Township residents.

Please vote for Nathan Oppedahl for Township Supervisor on March 11th.
Prepared & paid for by Nathan Oppedahl.
