THANK YOU NOTES

EGGENBERGER
Iver Eggenberger loved Lake City and the people in it. He loved to boast that, when he was eight or nine and worked the milk route, he knew everyone in town. Everything he wanted was no further north than Frontenac, no further south than Camp Lacapulis, and no further west than Oak Center.

Saturdays were Iver's favorite day. It was a celebration when the kid, Joe Schad, and he would take a few bucks in a game of Euchre from Emery Prigge and Bill Jacob. He loved to listen to the Twins or Gophers as he painted and hung wall paper with his brother Rod. If June fixed creamed peas with mashed potatoes and canned salmon before he was off to referee somewhere in southeastern Minnesota, he was ecstatic. Later, Iver loved working the wedding dances with June on Saturday nights at the VFW outside of town. There he could joke, tease, and laugh with all the people he loved.

Thank you, Lake City, for making his life wonderful!
A few special thank you's:
Dr. Thomas Ziebarth: Thank you for taking care of Iver. He always trusted you to give him the care you did. We so very much appreciate the concern and counsel provided to us the last week of his life.

Lake City Hospital staff: The attention you showed Iver was amazing and thorough. You were so kind in every detail.

Lake City Care Center staff: Thank you for the skills, compassion, love and tears you showed in everything you did for Iver and us. We are indebted to you for the care you gave to both June and Iver.

Mayo Red Wing Hospice: Thank you for your support and guidance in an emotional time for our family.

David Mahn: You know how much your friendship meant to Iver. Thank you seems so inadequate for all you've done for our family since you came to Lake City.

Joe Schad: Whenever we talked about you, Iver reminded us you were his best friend. He loved working and playing with you. If he was wrestling with something, he would say "I'll ask Joe and see what he thinks."

Pastor Nathan Cordes: Iver only knew you for a little over a week, but he was proud to call you his pastor. How blessed our family was that God sent you when he did. How blessed you and we are that God has shown you how to live and speak the Gospel as an example to our family and community.

St. John's Ladies Aid: Thank you for all the work you did for the lunch at the funeral. Our gratitude is inadequate in comparison to the effort and attention you show.

Legion Honor Guard: The reverence and tradition of the Honor Guard that you brought to the internment is treasured by our family. Please know that your service to our country is respected and cherished by all of us.

Whenever you name people in thanks, you run the risk of omitting the countless number of people who honored Iver in your own special way. Thank you.
