BOIE

The family of Dennis Boie would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone for the overwhelming kindness shown at the death of our Husband, Brother, Brother-in-law, Uncle and Friend.

There is absolutely nothing like living in a small community, especially at times like this. I feel totally hugged by everyone. Thank you to the Lake City Ambulance and Lake City Mayo Health Systems ER for your professional care for Denny and getting him transferred to Mayo. Also thank you to the Emergency Medical Team who transported Denny to St. Mary's Hospital in Rochester. To the Neuro ICU Unit on 6 Mary Brigh, thank you for his comfortable care until the end.

Thank you Mary Dawn for helping me understand everything that was going on with his care and why. To Denny's sisters and their families and to my family-how can I thank you all enough. I don't know what I would have done without you being at the hospital with me. I love you all so very much. Thank you to David Mahn and his staff for your care and concern and your professionalism in handling everything for us. Thank you to Sue McElmury and Lisa Wallerich for singing at Denny's Celebration of Life. You are the best.

To all my co-workers and staff at Lake City Federal-you are definitely my second family-Thank you. Last but not least thank you to everyone who came to Denny's Celebration of Life. Like I said Denny was a very simple man and just enjoyed his quiet life. This would have been way overboard for him but I would not have had it any other way but to have his family, friends, and relatives there to celebrate his life and celebrate his love for all of them by sharing a beer and a bump with him.

If I have forgotten anybody in this thank you or in my thank you cards it is unintentional. I read each and every beautiful card sent to me and it was overwhelming and a very good overwhelming. Our beloved Denny will be so very much missed by all of us. How life changes in a day's time. Hug your loved ones every day.

Thank you.
