Celebrating 125 years of caring for the community

It all started in 1898 when three Sisters of the Sorrowful Mother answered the plea to establish a hospital in Wabasha. So began our rich history of caring for the community. Many things have changed over the years, including our name. But our commitment to providing the best care to the community has not wavered.

We are thrilled to celebrate this 125-year anniversary as a member of Gundersen Health System, who shares our commitment to quality care, close to home. Join us throughout the year as we celebrate this milestone.
